

Gold Award Workshops

Fall 2019

Gold Award Introduction

This workshop is the first of the two required Gold Award workshops and must be attended before a girl begins, or is early into, her Journey work. An overview of the award, Journey strategies, timelines and inspiration to get you started will all be covered. This workshop is mandatory for all girls who wish to pursue this prestigious award. Part 2, Gold Award Project Planning must be taken after Journey completion (or nearing completion). This program is also open to adult members and non-members but they must register to reserve a seat.

Gold Award Project Planning

This workshop is the second of the two required Gold Award workshops and must be attended when a girl has completed, or is nearing completion, of the Journey work. Girls will gain an understanding of the necessary elements of a successful Gold Award Take Action Project and how to navigate the council approval process.

This workshop is mandatory for all girls who wish to propose a Take Action Project to council.

Adults (members & non-members) are welcome but must register to reserve a seat.

The Gold Award Introduction is a prerequisite to this program.
